Sample Oral Defense Questions

Here are some examples of the types of questions your teacher might ask you during your oral defense. These are examples only; your teacher may ask you different questions.

1. Describe how the content of the team presentation was changed as a result of group discussion.

2. Student A, how did the group decide to include Student B’s perspective/lens/conclusions into the overall presentation?

3. Student A, give one specific way that your thinking changed as a result of learning about Student B’s findings.

4. In the future, what change would you make to your group norms, and how would you expect that to improve the team presentation.

5. Reflecting on your colleagues’ work, which one had the greatest impact on your overall understanding of the problem your group identified?

6. In what way did you improve your ability to work with a group as a result of this project?

7. What is an example of a compelling argument from one of your peer’s individual reports that you decided to exclude from your team presentation and why?

8. What is a way in which your team’s resolution makes you think differently about your own individual research?

9. What was the strongest counter argument to the solution or conclusion your team identified and why?

10. Describe an argument from one of your peer’s individual reports that made you think differently about your team’s solution or conclusion?

11. Having finished your project, what if anything do you consider to be a gap in your team’s research that, if addressed, would make you feel more confident about your conclusion?
